

Minutes
PRESIDENT'S COUNCIL
Dec. 18 2018

PRESENT:

Department Rename:
Parson CMT to Parson
Construction & Building

	clarity between programs. This proposal will need to go to CAO's in the state for peer review.
	The President's Council approved the new Economics degrees based on suggestions to have a review done.
Masters of Education: Name Change and Three New Emphases	10. Associate Provost Bowen introduced a name change in Masters of Education from M.Ed. in Curriculum and Instruction to M.Ed: Emphasis in Curriculum and Instruction. Three new emphases were also presented before the Council: 1- M.Ed. Higher Ed Leadership 2- M. Ed. Education Leadership 3- M.Ed. In Family Life Education This change does not alter the degrees, but adds emphases.
	The President's Council approved the Masters of Education name change and the three new emphases suggestions for review.
Quickbytes	11. Vice President Bret Ellis discussed the following Quickbytes highlights: 1- A new app developed by IT personnel to allow users to assess their computer compliance. 2- A pre-requisite verification dashboard designed to help facilitate registration issues in a more timely and effective manner. 3- LinkedIn Learning: Encouraged all to use it and take courses offered. It is free and convenient learning on demand.
Consent Calendar: Early Retirement Request	12. The consent calendar items included three early retirement requests: 1- Joanne L. Lawrence, Performing Arts, 6/30/2019 2- Brian Elliott Berlin, FM Custodial, 1/31/2019 3- Cherrie G. Nelson, Human Resources, 5/31/2019
	The President's Council approved the early retirement requests
Upcoming Events	13. Upcoming events include the ribbon cutting ceremony for Lindquist Hall's renovation on Jan. 7, 2019 at 2:30 p.m.

Other

14. An email fromDFCM is seeking bilding board member nominees from WSU. Criteria would include ties to Weber State, as well as experience with building and development.

WSU has been nominated as a finalist for employer of the year for the Davis Chamber Business Award

Meeting Adjourned