

Minutes

area, while emergency notifications require immediate action such as locking down or sheltering in place. An educational campaign regarding the difference between the two alerts is underway, LeBlanc said.

MOU Between Title IX Office and Women's Center

5. Stephanie Hollist, legal counsel for the university, presented a draft memorandum of understanding between the Women's Center and Title IX office. The MOU is intended to strike a balance between victim confidentiality and retaining a culture of safety on campus.

PPM 7-10: Posting

6. Hollist shared proposed revisions to PPM 7-10, regarding posting flyers on campus. President's Council discussed potential changes, and the item was tabled until a later date.

PPM 6-22: Student Code

7. Provost Madonne Miner brought forth proposed changes to PPM 6-22, which would change the student code to allow for more leniency with absences due to students' military service.

ACTION

The President's Council approved the changes to PPM 6-22, which would next go to the WSU Board of Trustees for final approval.

Discussion: Student Code Revision Process

8. The President's Council discussed the process for revising the student code.

PPM 1-2: Trustees' Responsibilities

9. Miner presented suggested revisions to PPM 1-2, which would bring the Board of Trustees' authority regarding

ACTION

PPM 4-3: New Programs, Centers Institutes and Bureaus

ACTION

