DEPARTMENT OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

SEMINAR: CONTEMPORARY CORRECTIONS MCJ6230

Remember:

- a. Once you start an exam, you cannot stop or pause the clock.
- b. All exams are individual assignments in other words, you CANNOT take an exam with someone else.
- c. Copying or distributing any portion of an exam or quiz will result in a failing grade for the class and may lead to your termination from the graduate program.
- d. Please use the following numbers for Technical Assistance (do NOT contact me with technical problems)

*Chi Tester Support: 801-626-6477

*WSU On-line Help Desk: 801-626-7777

e. It is HIGHLY recommended to take all exams/quizzes at a university computer lab (WSU, University of Utah, Utah State, etc!). If there is a problem with a university system/computer that interferes with the successful completion of the exam/quiz, you must have someone from the lab e-mail me within 12 hours of the problem to have the exam left videous eapproblem with your own problem.

Course Schedule (Subject to change – Be sure to check Canvas at least 3 times per week and ALWAYS before class for any changes to this course or its requirements)

Readings and Due Dates

Course Materials

Week 1 – Canvas familiarization Syllabus Quiz (you must receive 100% before you'll have access to the Course Page)

Exam Schedule (from your Hanser readings)

Exam 1

Early History and Evolution of Punishment

and Corrections Chapter 1

The Development of Prisons in the United States Chapter 2

Ideological and Theoretical Underpinnings to

Corrections Chapter 3

Correctional Law and Legal Liabilities Chapter 4

Exam 1: Hanser Chapters 1-4 (1/11 – 1/31)

Exam 2
Jail and Detention Facilities

Exam 3

Classification and Custody Levels Chapter 9

Prison Subculture and Prison Gang Influence Chapter 10

Female Offenders in Correctional Systems Chapter 11

Specialized Inmate Populations Chapter 12

Exam 3: