communic tion and strengthen our relationship with the districts and will more fully empower district to the chers to be partners with us as we mentor our preservice to the chers the this important stage of their profession. I development s mentioned in the progr m director's response these ch llenges long with II other recommend tions for improvement by the review te m re either under consider tion m ny with ction pl ns Ire dy in pl ce or ppropri te responses re being considered nd will be cted upon by the progr m f culty over the course of the upcoming c demic ye r r dley will collect full report on decisions m de nd ctions t ken by the progr m f culty in response to this review nd will include it in her dep rtment nnu I report s e n of the erry nd Vickie oyes ollege of duc tion m strongly committed to the ongoing support of the e cher duc tion progr m including our f cilities f culty st ff nd students strongly support the dep rtment's desire to be n tion lly ccredited nd look forw rd to th t ccomplishment during the coming c demic ye r g in the nks to II who have contributed to this program evaluation and kudos to the faculty staff and the chair of the eacher duction department for II the great work they do not for their outstanding dedication to education in the state and region ck smussen e n erry nd Vickie oyes ollege of duc tion y